WHAT IF I SHARE MY STORY

of sexual assault (SA), dating violence (DV) or stalking (S) that I experienced during my time at HSU with...

CAMPUS ADVOCATE TEAM (CAT)

WAIT, WHO IS THIS?!

Our Campus Advocate Team (CAT) is made up of counselors from North Coast Rape Crisis Team.

CAT is NOT required to report to anyone. Everything you share with them will remain confidential.

CAT can support you in a variety of ways. They can help you explore your options. They offer free confidential support and one-on-one counseling. They can assist you in securing campus accommodations. As well as provide advocacy and accompaniment during the reporting or investigative process if you choose to report.

AN HSU FACULTY, COACH, OR STAFF MEMBER

By law, HSU staff/faculty are mandated to report information to the Title IX office.

TITLE IX OFFICE

When the Title IX office receives a report they will contact you to provide you with options for support and accommodations as well as possibilities for holding accountable the person who harmed you.

HSU STUDENT EMPLOYEE

If you tell a student within their role as an HSU employee they must report it to their staff supervisor.

Their supervisor is then required to report to the Title IX Office.

You can choose whether or not you talk to them and whether or not you file an official complaint.

UNIVERSITY POLICE (UPD)

Anonymous Report

No police investigation will happen. UPD won't know your identity and the perpetrator will not be notified that a report was filed. Anonymous reports exist to collect data that can increase awareness of the # of incidents of harm that occur on campus.

Once a police report has been filed UPD will determine the investigation based on the circumstances and the extent to which you are interested in participating. Our campus advocate team is there if you would like support throughout this process or have Q's.

Full Report

They can assist you in receiving campus accommodations such as: Changing classes or moving residence halls, receiving academic support, priority access to counseling, etc.

FYI: You will not get in trouble for violating university alcohol or other drug policies if it was involved within the incident of SA, DV, S.

A THERAPIST AT C.A.P.S. COUNSELING & PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES

Information you share with CAPS will remain confidential*
 *Confidentiality may be limited in certain situations; your therapist will inform you of these limits.

CAPs offers one-on-one counseling services and on campus survivor support groups.

A HEALTH CENTER STAFF MEMBER

Health Center Staff will contact our Campus Advocate Team who will meet with you to provide support resources and options.

Health Center Staff are also required to contact the police. When this happens, our Advocate Team can help you assert your right to talk or not talk to the police, depending on what you choose.

If you would like to talk to someone confidentially about what's involved in this process you can contact our Campus Advocate Team at (707) 445-2881.

We all deserve to be listened to, believed, and supported.
 If we experience harm at HSU, we have rights and options.
